GTCs

BRICKBeRLIN General Terms and Conditions (GTCs)

Area of Application - Contract Subject Matter

1. These general terms and conditions apply to the provision of real estate agent services, which are the subject of BRICKBeRLIN's general verification and brokering contract. With the conclusion of the contract our terms and conditions shall be deemed accepted.
2. Our GTCs apply both to consumers and to business owners, unless a differentiation is made in the relevant clause.
3. By signing the contract, the Customer bindingly declares desire to take part in the transaction.
4. The same applies to contracts that have been concluded at a distance (by letter, email, or fax, etc.).
5. The contract does not require any form; it will also come into force when our realtor services have been retained.

Commission and Payment

1. The existence of a rental and/or purchase agreement, which comes about via our brokerage services, justifies a claim for commission in favour of BRICKBeRLIN.
2. Insofar as no differing commission amount has been agreed upon (e.g. portfolio), the following rates shall apply:

2.1 Purchase Agreement:

The Customer will pay a commission of 7.14% (incl. VAT) of the contract's total economic value, including all related ancillary agreements, but at least € 4,000.00 (incl. VAT). This amount must be paid in advance and is to be regarded as a deposit, such that the Customer is not to offer the property to other interested parties. The commission claim will obtain as soon as a contract that we have verified or brokered has come into force and been notarized. The amount is payable immediately after coming into force, and is due and in favour of BRICKBeRLIN. The deposit will then be applied to toward the commission.

If the contract does not come into effect within three months from conclusion of the real estate agent services contract, for reasons that BRICKBeRLIN or the Seller is responsible for, BRICKBeRLIN will fully reimburse the Customer's deposit.

If the contract does not come into effect for reasons which the Customer is responsible for, any costs will be billed at a maximum amount of € 250 per week from the conclusion of the real estate agent services contract with BRICKBeRLIN. BRICKBeRLIN will also calculate a sum at a maximum amount of € 250/per week, as compensation for missed sales opportunities, on the grounds that at the conclusion of the verification and real estate services contract, the property was exclusively reserved to the Customer and was not offered to other interested parties. BRICKBeRLIN will deduct the amount from the Customer's deposit. The total amount of costs and damages may not exceed the amount of the entire deposit.

2.2 Rental Contract:

The owner will pay a commission of 2 basic net rents + VAT in the case of residential units. The amount is due and payable immediately in favour of BRICKBeRLIN upon conclusion of the contract.

The tenant will pay a commission of 2 basic net rents + VAT in the case of commercial units. The amount is due and payable immediately in favour of BRICKBeRLIN upon conclusion of the contract.

3. The Customer will promptly notify us upon conclusion of a contract, and send us a copy of the contract.
4. BRICKBeRLIN will not under any circumstances undertake a refund for any costs incurred by the Customer for the purpose of the brokered real estate property purchase, or conclusion of the lease contract, such as fees for professional services (such as notaries, lawyers, accountants, architects, etc.), travel or accommodation costs, time, etc.
5. The verified contract shall be deemed accepted via the brokerage of BRICKBeRLIN, provided the Customer does not inform us in writing within one week of his prior knowledge, along with the source.
6. If a verified or brokered agreement is rescinded or cancelled, our commission claim will not be affected.
7. The commission will also obtain in subsequent transactions that have been concluded within a temporal and economic context since the original contract. A follow-up business is assumed when an extension or modification of the concluded contract opportunity obtains.

Broker Liability

1. Our statements and information are based on the statements of our client or of a third party (business colleagues). BRICKBeRLIN does not guarantee that this information is accurate, in particular we are not liable for the developmental potential of the contract subject matter, the presence of all necessary construction law permits, current or future tenancies (including their maintenance), and for the return on the property as determined in the portfolio. This list is not exhaustive. It is up to the Customer to verify the property information and data for accuracy.
2. The translations of all our published documents have been prepared with great care. Nevertheless, we assume no liability for the correctness and completeness of the composition and content of those translations, nor for the direct or indirect consequences that may or may not proceed on the basis of those translations. In all cases the German document shall prevail.
3. BRICKBeRLIN does not provide tax or legal advice. The Customer should seek advice from tax consultants or lawyers regarding the tax or legal consequences of concluding real estate contracts.
4. In addition, we are only liable for intent or gross negligence.
5. BRICKBeRLIN reserves the right to work for both parties in return for payment.
